7th & 8th Grade Confirmation Retreat: Camp Wapo

November 15-17

Save for your records!

---

Friday, November 15

- Meet at RLC at 6 PM Load the buses and head to Wapo – Please be on time
Eat dinner BEFORE coming (We will NOT be stopping on the way to camp)
We will be meeting in the Ryan Ave. Parking Lot
- Packing
  - Sleeping Bag & Pillow
  - Towel
  - Toiletry Items & Medication
  - Warm Clothing (it will be chilly in November and we will be doing activities outside).
  - Close-toed Shoes (for outside activities)
  - T-Shirts & Shorts (if it is warm)
  - Jacket, Hat, Gloves, Sweatshirts
  - NO Electronics

During the Weekend:

- Fellowship
This weekend will allow students to grow in fellowship with each other but also give their small group leader a chance to connect with your child. Students will also have the opportunity to dive deep into what Confirmation is and why we do it.
- Team Building
As part of connecting and growing in fellowship with one another, we will be doing team building activities and low ropes initiatives. Some of these will take place outside so it is important to bring clothes appropriate for the weather.
- Meals
All meals will be provided by Camp Wapo. Please make sure to register online and state all food allergies and food preferences so we can ensure your child gets food that they can eat.
- Free Time
Students will get some free time while they are at Wapo. This will be their time to talk, run, or play games (the Gaga Pit will be open).
- Electronics
Electronics will NOT be allowed at camp. They can have them on the bus but they will be collected upon arrival and returned before getting on the bus to head home.

Sunday, November 17

- We will leave Wapo around 11:30 AM and then be back to church around 1:00PM
We will be eating brunch at 10AM so we will NOT be stopping for lunch on the way back
We will be meeting in the Ryan Ave. Parking Lot
