

Jesus knew that he had to fulfill certain prophecies to do things the way people predicted the way they'd be done. That's why he rode in on a colt, because the Bible said the Messiah would do that.

People must have been so excited to know that the Messiah had come! Color the picture below in festive, bright colors.

Triumphal Entry

Mark 11

Hosanna!

Jesus was traveling to Jerusalem with his disciples. He told his followers to find a colt for him to ride. He told them where one would be. The disciples could tell the owner Jesus needed it. The owner let them take the colt.

Jesus rode the colt into town, and as he rode, people that stood alongside the road cheered him on! They threw their coats on the ground to make a special carpet and they waved palm branches. They shouted, "Hosanna!" because they were so excited to see Jesus. They knew he came in the name of God, and they were so excited to see him.
